InStyle teamed up with designer J.J. Martin on a capsule collection of badass-inspired lounge wear that will serve all your WFH, staying-home needs. Our February issue is all about Badass Women who show up, speak up, and get things done — like you. And because loungewear is basically all anyone's wearing these days, you might as well look cute while doing it.

Be prepared to wear your heart on your sleeve. The capsule collection features a soft tee, a cozy sweatshirt, and fleece-lined sweatpants that embody everything we stand for. "Bigger the Heart Badder the Ass" is inscribed in '70s-inspired font on the front of the T-shirt and sweatshirt, while "badass" is embroidered on the back of the sweatpants, in a throwback to those early aughts twinset styles that have been creeping back into the fashion zeitgeist this year.

The loungewear pieces are all made in Italy from 100% cotton, so you're guaranteed quality, comfy-chic sweats you'll never want to take off. So go ahead, treat yourself because we know you like big ... hearts and you cannot lie.
